

Valle Crucis Community Park
Social Media Policy
Adopted January 26, 2020

Valle Crucis Community Park makes use of various social media platforms to communicate about Park events, environmental education content, and other topics to our Park users. We encourage others to post and comment on our social media sites. However, this does not imply that the Park agrees with or endorses the content, opinions, or views expressed within comments made by members of the public. The person who posts a comment is solely responsible for its content.

In addition, the Park reserves the right to block users who violate this policy and/or to remove social media comments containing any of the following posted to its sites:

- Abusive, vulgar, offensive, threatening, or harassing language; personal attacks, or attacks on the Valle Crucis Community Park organization; or offensive terms that target specific individuals or groups.
- Political statements, including comments that endorse or oppose political candidates or parties.
- Comments that endorse or oppose any type of religious opinions or activities.
- Obscene or sexual content or links to obscene or sexual content.
- Comments not topically related to Park programs, services, projects, issues, events, and activities.
- Posts and comments that promote or advertise commercial services, entities, or products.

The Park also encourages any individual with specific concerns regarding the Park's programs, services, or operations to contact the Park Director at director@vallecrucispark.org.
